TOMFOLEY SHERIFF

Wigwam Rolls Up a Plurality Over 40,000.

VERY LIGHT VOTE CAST

Republicans Show Much Better at the Ballot Box Than Independence League—Result of Election a Clean Sweep for Charles F. Murphy and the Braves—Judge Whitman Runs Ahead of Ticket, but is Defeated.

New York, Nov. 5.—Tammany, as had been foreseen, elected its whole county ticket to-day from justice of the Supreme Court to sheriff, by pluralities reaching above 40,000.

Judge Whitman ran well ahead of his ticket, but the odds against him were too great.

Tom Foley's plurality for sheriff, with a few election districts missing, is about 42,000, or about the same as the total Hearst vote in the county. Mr. Hearst apparently furnished about one-third of the vote for himself.

Of the justices of the municipal courts, of whom fifteen were elected, in this county, Tammany elected seven.

Louis Lande, who had the Citizens' Union support in the Second district, was defeated. Tammany elects twenty-five assemblymen against twenty-six last year, and the Republicans get ten instead of nine.

Aldermen Are Democrats.

The new board of aldermen will apparently be in the control of the Democrats by a narrow margin.

The city vote on the State ticket serves to give an idea of the strength of the Hearst organization in the city when it goes alone. The Hearst vote for Lyon for the Court of Appeals in round numbers is as follows:

Manhattan and the Bronx, 44,000; Brooklyn, 34,000; Queens, 33,000; Richmond, 1,000; total, 112,000.

Republicans Cast 60,000.

If the vote for Lyon in this county is subtracted from the joint vote for himself for sheriff, which was about 106,000, there remain 46,000 votes for himself to be credited to the Republican organization, of which Mr. Parsons is chairman, and which gave Mr. Hearst, in consideration of the vote he was to hold, the right to nominate six of the eleven candidates on the county ticket.

McDonough, as a Republican, ran a little ahead of Lyon, the head of the Hearst State ticket.

Expect Assembly Majority.

Everything was very quiet at Republican State headquarters, 12 East Thirtieth street to-night.

Chairman Woodruff, of the State committee, left La Fayette B. Glendon, secretary of the committee, and Luther B. Little, treasurer, in charge, while he gave his whole time to the King's County situation. Mr. Glendon and Mr. Little said just before midnight that from their returns the Republicans would have a majority in the assembly of between thirty and forty.

Many returns from up the State were delayed, and most of those received came in over the long-distance telephone lines. The word came from Albany that William Barnes, Jr., had re-elected Mayor Gaus by 3,000, and that Barnes' entire city ticket was elected. This was a gain of one, Bernard J. Haggerty, in the Fourth district.

From Rochester, George W. Aldridge sent word that he had elected his candidate for mayor by 900, and had elected the entire five Republican assemblymen for Monroe County. This was a gain of one, Bernard J. Haggerty, in the Fourth district.

The news was sent down from Water-town that the Republicans had elected their mayor by the largest plurality in the history of the city.

Attendance Is Slim.

The attendance at State headquarters to-night was slim. It included such old stand-bys as Col. James E. Jones, Bernard Biglin, John A. Drake, and later came United States Civil Service Commissioner Cooley. The greatest interest outside of the election of a Republican assemblyman was in the New Jersey and Cleveland elections.

Why it became known that Mayor Tom Johnson had been re-elected in Cleveland there was also surprise, for the reason that the Republicans in these districts have believed that Burton would easily beat Johnson, especially as Burton had the solid backing of the election of Judge M. Linn Bruce as Representative Parsons' successor as president of the county committee. The Republicans who circulated this report said that they had heard that such a movement had been under consideration for the last week or more. They would not tell who was responsible for the report.

Judge Bruce was defeated to-day for election to the Supreme Court bench of

DEMOCRATIC LOSSES HEAVY

Hager's Vote Shows Falling Off of 1,755 in Ten Precincts from Which Beckham Received Greatest Support Four Years Ago—Louisville Will Have Republican Mayor.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—Official returns from ten counties in the State show a decided falling off in Democratic majorities from that received by Beckham four years ago, and, as all of the ten counties are Democratic strongholds, it is almost certain that Willson, Republican, is elected governor. Hager's majority over Willson in the ten counties is 4,245, while Beckham's four years ago in the same counties was 6,000, a falling off of 1,755.

No official returns from any of the Republican counties are in, but unofficial returns received at Republican headquarters show a decided gain in the mountain counties for Willson. Willson's election is claimed by 10,000. Out of eighty-one precincts in the city of Louisville, Graustad (Rep.), for mayor, has a majority of 1,200 over Tyler (Dem); while Willson, for governor, even ran ahead of Graustad and far ahead of Hager in those precincts.

The Democrats practically concede the election of Cleveland, and say now that Willson will carry Louisville and the Fifth Congressional district by a heavy majority.

In this campaign the Democrats embraced prohibition as an issue, the Republicans favoring a more liberal policy.

BOURKE COCHRAN ARRESTED

Held for Illegal Voting, but Is Freed by Magistrate.

Policeman Could Not Find Representative's Home—Many Taken Into Custody in New York.

New York, Nov. 5.—Representative W. Bourke Cochran was placed under arrest late this afternoon in the polling place at 189 Third avenue by Policeman Thornton, of the East Twenty-second street station on a charge of illegal voting.

The policeman said he could not verify the address given by Mr. Cochran, 30 East Seventeenth street, from where Mr. Cochran registered.

From the East Twenty-second street station Mr. Cochran was taken in a cab to the Yorkville Police Court, where he was honorably discharged by the magistrate.

Directly upon the closing of the polls this afternoon, after an election day marked by general apathy and the lightest vote of years, the count of the ballots was begun in the various polling places. There were few difficulties in the way of getting at the work immediately, and it was expected that the count could be finished early.

The police declared that it was the most orderly and quiet election that had been held in years.

Only one riot, in which shots were fired, occurred in Williamsburg, but the police reserves soon put an end to the trouble there.

Scores of arrests were made throughout the city, but the majority of the persons taken into custody were freed by the magistrates sitting in the courts especially to take cognizance of such cases.

District Attorney Jerome complained that many of the arrests were for technical causes, and should not have been made. He assisted Judge Rosinsky to dispose of several cases by moving for the discharge of the prisoners.

JOHNSON WINS

Cleveland's Mayor Is Re-elected Over Burton.

PLURALITY OF 8,000

Democrats Retain Control of the City Council.

Hopes of Republican Leaders Rise on Early Returns Only to Be Dashed to Pieces—Congressman Candidate Shows Better Than W. H. Boyd, Who Went to Defeat Two Years Ago—East Side Vote Heavy.

Cleveland, Nov. 5.—The re-election of Tom L. Johnson to the majority of this city, over Representative Theodore E. Burton, incited to enter the fight by President Roosevelt, was conceded at 10 o'clock by Republican leaders.

The most conservative of the men who backed Mr. Burton in his spectacular battle put Mayor Johnson's plurality at from 8,000 to 9,000, from 7,000 to 8,000 less than the figures by which he won his third term over W. H. Boyd two years ago. The Cleveland Leader, Burton's supporter, concedes his defeat by 8,000.

With Mayor Johnson, it is conceded, a majority of the council is elected, giving him a mastery of the city legislative body, which will make him dictator of the traction situation, which alone figured in the contest.

Later returns may alter the figures of the plurality.

Burton Long Hopeful.

Despite the fact that early returns indicated he was not making the required gain of fifty votes to a precinct, Congressman Burton reiterated his belief that he would be elected.

His secretary, T. E. Cassidy, as late as 5:30 o'clock, when the gains for Burton were only fourteen to a precinct, predicted his chief's election by 2,000.

Mayor Johnson, hearing the returns in the city hall office, which has been his for nearly seven years, was compelled early in the evening to alter his afternoon prediction of 15,000 plurality. He cut the figure to 8,000.

Republican leaders abandoned hope that their leader would pull through when the sixty-six precincts equipped with voting machines reported. The vote in these precincts, scattered throughout the city in such a manner as to give an accurate line on the situation, gave Mr. Burton a gain of only twenty-eight votes to the precinct. Fifty were necessary.

Republicans Show Gains.

As the night wore on and the percentage of Republican gain crept up until it had mounted to thirty-five a precinct, hopes revived in the office of Mr. Cassidy, in the Williamson building, where Congressman Burton was receiving returns. So tenacious did Mr. Burton and his personal supporters cling to the belief that the enormous poll of 8,000 votes meant his election, that Mr. Burton refused to give up hope.

"My belief in the victory of the people's cause has been justified," said Mayor Johnson, with a smile which only served to betray the weariness which he followed the close of the strenuous campaign. He would not say anything of his decreased plurality.

Great interest in the fight which began with Mr. Burton's reluctant consent to

Outcome of Battle at the Polls.

Mayor Tom L. Johnson won over Congressman Theodore Burton by eight thousand in Cleveland, Ohio.

Incomplete returns from Baltimore indicate that Judge Crothers, Democrat, is leading Gaither, Republican, for governor. The returns from the counties are so incomplete that no deductions can be drawn.

Former Gov. Smith leads Gov. Warfield in the Democratic Senatorial primaries and will be the next United States Senator from Maryland.

The Hearst-Parsons fusion ticket in New York was snowed under by Tammany by majorities ranging from forty to fifty thousand.

Judge Fort was elected governor of New Jersey over Katzenback, Democrat, by about ten thousand plurality.

Gov. Guild, Republican, was re-elected in Massachusetts. District Attorney Moran, of Boston, the Independence League candidate, also is a winner.

The Republicans claim Kentucky by ten thousand, and apparently have elected Willson governor over Hager, and the entire State ticket as well.

High license won a victory in Delaware, with a majority of four thousand in Wilmington, but two counties went dry.

In San Francisco Dr. Taylor, the "Good Government" acting mayor, was elected by a big majority. The Schmitz regime in that city is at an end.

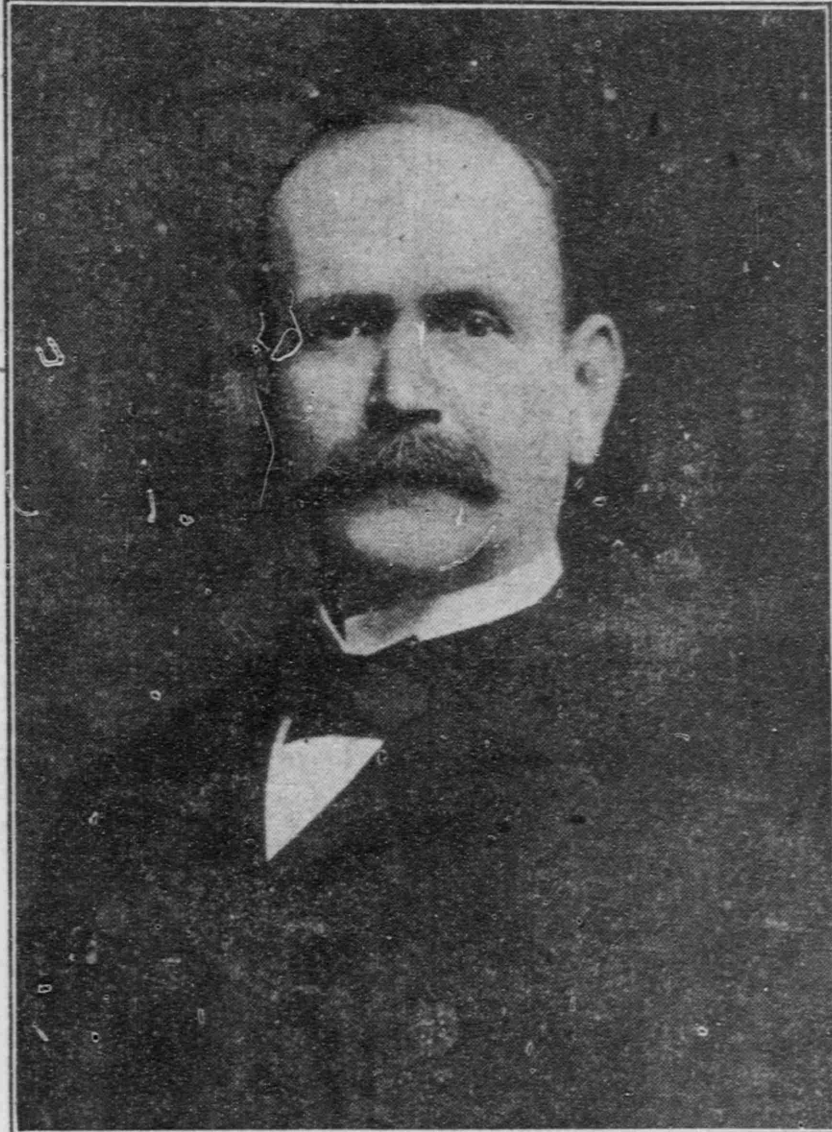

Charles C. Carlin, Democrat, of Alexandria, was elected to Congress from the Eighth Virginia district by the largest majority ever given in that district.

Gov. Higgins, Democrat, is re-elected in Rhode Island.

In Salt Lake City, the American party elected their mayor over the Mormon candidate.

Pennsylvania went Republican by the usual majority, and the $10,000,000 loan bill carried in Philadelphia.

STRIKE ENDS TO-DAY

Telegraph Companies Look for Men to Come Back.

EXPECT BREAK IN NEW YORK

Officials Explain that It Was Due Yesterday, but Many of the Operators, Acting as Election Watchers, Were Too Busy to Apply for Reinstatement—Forty Men Return.

New York, Nov. 5.—It is expected that the strike of the telegraphers will end to-morrow, and it would have officially ended to-day but that it was election day, and a great many of the strikers were employed as watchers at the polls. A special meeting of the strikers will be held to-morrow in Clinton Hall, where a resolution, which was tabled on Sunday, to call off the strike and return to work will again be put to the meeting, and it's a foregone conclusion that this will be merely a matter of form, and that it will be carried at once.

The strike of the telegraphers was twelve weeks old last Monday, and was remarkable for the fact that though the rules of the union went by the board in calling the strike, which began in this city, at least in a general stampede of the strikers from the main offices of the Western Union Company at the sound of a whistle, without the preliminary of demands made, the strikers until the last two weeks remained enthusiastic, and believed that they would win concessions.

In the last two days the strike began to go to pieces itself. Up to noon to-day forty strikers applied for work in this city, and more continued to come until midnight. Many broke away on Monday. According to the officials of the Western Union Company few of the strikers can be reinstated. The strikers expect, however, that most of them will get back. Of a number who were refused reinstatement several days ago, on the ground that they were undesirable, some have since been taken back. The strikers believe there will be work for all who apply, and that a number of the strikebreakers will leave after a week or so. These, they say, did not expect to be employed permanently.

FORMAL ACTION IN CHICAGO.

Strike Will Be Called Off and Men Return to Work.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The strike of the commercial telegraphers against the Western Union Telegraph Company, the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, and the Associated Press will be formally declared off to-morrow, at a secret meeting of the general executive board of the national branch of the union with the committee of nine sent to New York in a final effort to get some recognition for the telegraphers' union. A vote was taken at the closed meeting of Chicago Local No. 1, to-day, and the result of the vote showed that 212 were favorable toward terminating the strike, while 193 voted to continue the strike.

Announcement was received at national headquarters to-day that the committee, known as the peace committee, was on its way to Chicago from New York, where they met with positive failure in their effort to get a hearing with the management of the telegraph interests.

The strikers will return as individuals, and such of them as can secure positions will return to work.

DEPARTMENT BUILDING AFIRE

New Agricultural Addition Burns in Early Morning.

Fire of unknown origin was discovered at 2 o'clock this morning in the Department of Seed Distribution, Bureau of Plant Industry, Department of Agriculture, in Thirteenth-and-a-half street, between C and D streets southwest.

So quickly did the flames spread that by 2:30 o'clock the blaze had entirely enveloped the big building, which is 100 by 300 feet in dimensions and five stories in height.

This is one of the newest additions to the Department of Agriculture, and represents a large outlay of money. The loss, it is estimated, will be great.

SMITH VICTOR

Downs Warfield for Maryland Senatorship.

GAITHER BEATEN

Judge Crothers Leads in the Governorship Fight.

RESULTS COME SLOWLY

Indications at 2 o'clock This Morning Were for Democratic Victory, Although No Definite Returns Have Been Received from Single County. Republicans Are Making Gains, but Not Enough to Overcome the Normal Democratic Majorities.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 5.—Judge Austin L. Crothers is probably the next Democratic governor of Maryland and former Gov. John Walter Smith, Democrat, will be the next United States Senator.

At 1 o'clock this morning, owing to the cumbersome and long ballot, but scattering returns are in, but they indicate a plurality for Crothers throughout the State of between 4,000 and 6,000.

The Democrats will have a majority in the general assembly, which assures the choice of former Gov. Smith to succeed Gorman for the long term in the Senate, and that William Pinkney White will fill out the unexpired term of Gorman.

The Democrats have probably elected their state and local tickets. Smith's defeat of Warfield in the senatorial primaries was overwhelming. Smith carried the entire Eastern Shore. In Worcester county Smith got 2,000 and Warfield but 55. In Caroline county, Smith got 1,136 and Warfield 238. In Talbot county Smith got 1,506 and Warfield 152. In Cecil county Warfield got 1,386 and Smith 569. Smith carried Baltimore City by 4,498.

Smith in the Lead.

Queen Anne county may have declared for Gov. Warfield. If the counties on the Shore, which are usually Democratic, this year elect Democratic members of the general assembly, the former governor will come to Baltimore with the following vote:

Caroline, 2; Cecil, 3; Dorchester, 4; Kent, 3; Somerset, 4; Talbot, 4; Wicomico, 4; Worcester, 4; total, 23.

To these twenty-nine votes there may be added with certainty seven of the First legislative district of this city, Montgomery, five votes, and five from Prince George, making a total of forty-six, which will be sufficient to bring about his election if the legislature is Democratic.

The Second district of this city, with one precinct missing, gives Smith 4,366; Warfield, 1,456; Smith's majority, 40.

The Third district, with three precincts missing, shows that Gov. Warfield has carried that district. The vote as returned is as follows:

Warfield, 5,775; Smith, 5,130; Warfield's majority, 1,085.

An unconfirmed dispatch from Elliott City says that Howard County is for ex-Gov. Smith by a majority of 300. This is Gov. Warfield's home county.

Warfield Carries Anne Arundel.

Gov. Warfield has carried Carroll and Anne Arundel counties and probably several counties in Western Maryland, which usually elect Republican members of the general assembly.

The following are the pluralities for former Gov. Smith and Gov. Warfield in the several legislative districts of this city:

First district—Smith's plurality, 2,487. Second district—Smith's plurality, 134. Third district—Warfield's plurality, 1,132. Fourth district—Smith's plurality, 2,451.

Gov. Warfield's friends are claiming the second district. One precinct is missing. Congressman J. Fred C. Talbot was not in the running. He carried Baltimore County, which is his home county, and Harford, where former Gov. Smith's friends supported him rather than run the risk of the county declaring for Gov. Warfield. Mr. Talbot received a considerable scattering vote in this city and in rural counties.

The count in the gubernatorial contest is still in progress at 1:30 a. m.

The first precinct report to come in was the Tenth precinct, in the Thirteenth ward, which had given Warfield a plurality of 32 in 1903. This time it gave Gaither a plurality of 25, a Republican gain of 58. This same precinct gave Mahool II plurality, showing a gain of 38 over the spring vote. The next came in from the Eleventh precinct, in the Seventeenth ward, and showed a Democratic gain of 38 over Mahool's vote.

Majority for Gaither.

The first eleven precincts showed a majority of 80 for Gaither. In the independent wards in Northwest Baltimore, Mr. Gaither apparently held his own, running even better in sections than did Mayor Timanus. He also gained in the South Baltimore wards, reports from the Twenty-first and Twenty-second wards indicating good Republican majorities.

It is very evident that hundreds of Democrats voted for Gaither for governor, and the marked for the Democratic candidates for the other offices. In some of the precincts, particularly in those in independent wards like the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, and Fifteenth, the difference is marked.

The Republicans apparently voted a straight ticket, as in the few returns
